Fox, Senior U.S. District Judge, on July 3, 2007, to the custody of the Bureau of Prisons for a term of 64 months. It was further ordered that upon release from imprisonment the defendant be placed on supervised release for 36 months under the standard conditions adopted by the court and the following additional conditions:

1. The defendant shall participate as directed in a program approved by the probation office for the treatment of narcotic addiction, drug dependency, or alcohol dependency which will include urinalysis testing or other drug detection measures and may require residence or participation in a residential treatment facility.
2. The defendant shall consent to a warrantless search by a United States Probation Officer or, at the request of the probation officer, any other law enforcement officer, of the defendant's person and premises, including any vehicle, to determine compliance with the conditions of this judgment.
3. The defendant shall cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer.

Johnny Wayne Hayes was released from custody on February 16, 2012, at which time the term of supervised release commenced.

RESPECTFULLY PRESENTING PETITION FOR ACTION OF COURT FOR

On July 31, 2000, the defendant pled guilty to Indecent Liberties with a Child (2 counts) in Wake County Superior Court, Raleigh, N.C.
